

★Because the New Corona Virus infection, the office work can stop and change anytime. For new information, check the city home page.

Mother and Child Health

1. pregnancy, giving birth, parenting

1) Delivery of Your Mother and Child Health Handbook

△ Application place. After an interview in the Mother and Child Health Division (inside Health Care Center), you can request the Birth Delivery Support benefit (50,000 yen).

*If you cannot come at office in weekdays (from 9:00 A.M. to 5:00 P.M.) due to your work, please contact us.

*Do a reservation through the applicative "Raku-Raku ★ Easy Immunization Navi" or by telephone.

2) Infant family visitation project

Home visitation will be made for families who have 2 to 3 months old baby to give an information about parenting. Subject for everyone.

After the interview, you can request the Child care support benefit (50,000 yen).

3) Babe square for 4 months old

Families who have age of about 4 months, old baby can get instruction about physical information, confirmation of development, child-care consultation, and parenting. The place will be the Health Center. The day and time will be informed individually, Everyone is eligible.

4) If you have any problem or worry about pregnancy, giving birth, or parenting,

Health supporter, nutritionist, odontologist and midwife can give advice by telephone or visit at home. Please consult with the Maternal and Child Health Division.

2. Medical Checkups

1) For expectant mothers

- Health checkups

By the separate volume of the Maternal and Child Health Handbook (Pregnancy Health Checkup Slip), consult one of the Prefecture Medical Institutions.

For checkups outside Chiba Prefecture, please consult with the Maternal and Child Health Division beforehand.

- Dental health checkups

The consultation ticket is also given together with Maternal and Child Health Handbook.

This voucher entitles you to one dental checkup while pregnant at one of the city's approved medical institutions. The fee is ¥400. (Note: This fee is waived for recipients of public assistance for everyday living.)

- New born hearing test

According the Mother Child Health Handbook, until 50 days after child birth in any medical institution in the Prefecture.

2) Newborn child

- Newborn medical examination

You can do it at a city hall registered medical institution in the prefecture, within 50 days after birth, using the separate volume of the Maternal and Child Health Handbook (newborn hearing screening test consultation slip).

Before that, consult the Mother and Child Health Section.

3) For infants

- Health checkups (between three and six months and nine and eleven months)

By the separate volume of the Maternal and Child Health Handbook (Infant Health Checkup Slip), consult one of the Prefecture Medical Institutions.

For checkups outside Chiba Prefecture, please consult with the Maternal and Child Health Division beforehand.

4) For toddlers

- Health and dental checkups

◇ Health Checkups for 18-Month-Olds (from a year and a half to less than two years old)

Individual notification. Please, consult a medical institution.

◇ Dental Checkups for 18-Month-Olds (from one year and ten months to one year and eleven months old)

Individual notification. Medical consultation for groups is done in the Health Care Center.

◇ Dental Checkups for 2-and-a-Half-Year-Olds (two and a half years old); application basis

Note: Schedule to be announced through public bulletin, etc.

◇ Health Checkups for 3-Year-Olds (from three years and four months to less than four years old)

Individual notification. Please, consult a medical institution.

◇ Dental Checkups for 3-Year-Olds (from three years and four months to less than four years old)

Individual notification. Please, consult a medical institution.

3. Vaccinations

Commissioned medical institutions listed in the announcement letter, etc. administer the vaccinations.

1) Regular vaccinations

Vaccine name	Target age
Hib ※1	From two months to under five years old
Pneumococcal vaccine ※1	From two months to under five years old
BCG	Under one year old (normally five to seven months old)
Inactive polio vaccine ※2	From three months to under seven years and six months old
DPT-IPV (diphtheria, pertussis, tetanus and inactivated polio vaccine combination)	From three months to under seven years and six months old
Rotavirus	Rotarix: from 6 weeks to 24 weeks after birthday Rotatec: from 6 weeks to 32 weeks after birthday
Hepatitis B	Under one year old

Measles and rubella, first term	From one year to under two years old
Varicella (chicken pox)	From one year to under three years old
Japanese encephalitis, first term	From six months to under seven years and six months old (normally from three years old)
Measles and rubella, second term	One-year period before the start of elementary school (final year of kindergarten or nursery school) Note: By the end of March of every fiscal year after issuance of notification
Japanese encephalitis, second term ※3	From nine years to under thirteen years old
DT (diphtheria and tetanus combination), second term	From eleven years to under thirteen years old
Cervical cancer prevention	Girls from the sixth grade of elementary school to the first year of high school or of equivalent age (Normally, first year of junior high school)

※1 Number of vaccinations for Hib, pediatric pneumococcal and cervical cancer varies depending when start the vaccination.

※2 Children vaccinated for DPT-IPV do not need to receive the inactivated polio vaccine.

※3 Special eligibility for Japanese encephalitis vaccination:

1. Among children under twenty years of age and born between April 2, 1995 and April 1, 2007, those who have not completed the first/second term of the vaccination are eligible for vaccination.

2. Among children born between April 2, 2007 and April October 1, 2009, those who have not completed the first term of the vaccination are eligible for vaccination when they are from nine to under thirteen years old.

*4 Eligible persons for update vaccination. For people born between 2nd April 1997 until 1st April 2007 with disabilities. Can get vaccination until 31st March 2025.

● Vaccination and health checkup status questionnaire

Women who have moved to Yachiyo City while pregnant and households with children under the age of thirteen are required to fill out and submit the vaccination and health checkup status questionnaire.